

i am deaf and i am emotional problmes and i need to have vrs 24 hours and 7 day s a week so i can talk to crisis center 24 hours to prevent me become depression or suicide and whatever and easy me to use sign language than 711 because i cant think how to typing english and emotional and crying and etc. too hard for me to typing but vrs easy to sign language to interpreter and easy to undeststand and reduce frustration using vrs etc. you know what i am saying ok thanks very much and alos you know can you use tdd typing while you are in emotional and etc. too hard for you so you use your voice easy for you to communicaiton same as deaf use sign language ok thanks for your time to read it
